Business/Organization Description:

Shanghai Feno International trading Co., Ltd. has grown into an experienced supplier of dried fruits and tree nuts in eastern China. Most of its food products are used as ingredients in the food manufacturing. Currently, the company's product line includes cranberries, blueberries, almonds, prunes, walnuts, cashew nuts, raisins and etc. from U.S., Turkey and South Asia.

Mr. Yang remarked that due to the fact that most of the company's customers come from baking industry, the imported products are needed in bulk for food production. Targeted at the bakery market, blanched almond slices and almond powder are sought after. The demand will be about 1,000 cartons every year.
